

Ladies & Gentlemen,

My family and I sincerely support the Telephone Consumer Protection Act. Senior Citizens in NJ must be protected from unscrupulous telemarketers who easily take advantage of them by purposefully misrepresenting their products.

I am a 46 year old college graduate and do not fall for their ploys. However, my 84 year old mother has fallen victim on several occasions in the past. I have directly experienced the ridiculous claims made by telemarketers. I have rarely found any to be conscientious in identifying what they are selling.

It is outrageous that you would even consider rescinding a law that protects against invasion of privacy. Do not crumble under the pressure of private interest groups!

Legitimate retailers do not need to invade the privacy of consumers. They take no for an answer. They do not misrepresent their wares nor do they make false claims.

Thank you for your attention.
